2 Corinthians 9:6-14

Discussion Questions

1. The principle of sowing and reaping is well known and accepted as scientific fact. What causes you to sow sparingly, knowing you will reap sparingly? To sow generously, knowing you will reap generously?
2. Knowing the Owner provided the seed and instructs us to be generous with his limitless resources...why are our hands clenched tight in disobedience at sowing time? Why do we groan when our harvest is light?
3. When God gives us seed to sow in abundance, with everything needed within it to produce a multiplied harvest, why are we shocked when we choose to sow generously and our harvest overflows? What do we need to repent of and seek God's forgiveness for? Discuss.
4. In vs. 10, the Supplier, supplies the seed; the grain to make bread and enough seed to sow the next season. Why then do we wrestle with a spirit of scarcity? How do we embrace a spirit of abundance?
5. Extravagant generosity results in many rewards. From vs. 11-14, what might some of those rewards be? Try and identify at least three.
