Loving Well. Standing Firm.
Daniel 4:8-37

Discussion Questions

1. God lovingly chases each of us so we will turn back to Him. God used a dream with Nebuchadnezzar. What other ways have you seen Him use?
2. "Finally" in vs. 8, Neb turned to God thru Daniel to interpret the dream. Form a list of the places/experiences/people, etc. we turn to instead of to Him. Why do we refuse to go to Him till the list is exhausted?
3. God personalized His pursuit of Neb to break through his unique barrier to faith, his pride. As you love others as Daniel did, how might the Spirit use you to speak into others unique barriers? "i.e. you are that tree"
4. In vs. 4, God may "remove" that which we hold dear (home, contentment, prosperity, etc.). Does this seem loving? What are the most loving steps He could take to personally get our attention? Discuss.
5. God lovingly warned Neb what would come if he didn't turn, but nothing happened for a year. How important is following through and why? Close in prayer together for those you love who refuse to turn to God.
