Sermon: Engaging the Wrong Crowd
John 4:1-8

Sermon Discussion Questions

1. Share with each other the wisdom your parents & family drilled into you about picking good friends and hanging with the wrong crowd.
2. As a Jewish Rabbi, Jesus was religiously and culturally expected to have no contact with the Samaritans. Why was that? What wrong crowds are you expected to stay away from today? Discuss.
3. Jesus intentionally engaged the Samaritan woman as He was prompted by the Holy Spirit, while "prayer walking". Share your stories like this.
4. Discuss how your group might give themselves this summer to intentional prayer walking, prayer hiking, prayer swimming, etc. and make plans together for how you're going to engage your wrong crowd.
5. What barriers might keep you from crossing over to your "wrong crowd" that you might begin a simple conversation and make a new friend or two? Close in prayer together seeking wisdom and direction.
