3. The queen believed in Daniel, but Bel's heart was hard and blind. How do you like Daniel withstand the withering insults and attacks from a Bel so you stand firm and consistently love well?
4. Daniel was God's instrument as he worked boldly through his Spirit-led life and generous gifts. How did he compare and contrast out loud, his Grandfather Neb and Bel in vs. 18-21 and 22-23. Discuss
5. Bel and his reign as King were judged in three ways in vs. 26-28, as courageously interpreted by Daniel. What were those ways and how did wise old Daniel lovingly stand firm in telling Bel?
