From Ruin to Restoration
Ruth 2:8-23

Discussion Questions

1. When a dream of yours shatters, which sounds more like you "I've got this" or "I'm giving God this"? Share why you choose that way?
2. Boaz asked God to bless Ruth, because she came to God under whose wing she took refuge. What characteristics of refuge have you found from being under His wing?
3. The extravagant generosity of Boaz was a favor Ruth did not merit. Why did she experience such grace so far beyond the law of gleaning?
4. When Ruth told Naomi about Boaz and his kindness...the numbness of the last years began to give way to a glimmer of hope again. What do you think made her heart begin to revive again?
5. A kinsman-redeemer like Boaz had the right to marry Ruth and continue the family name. What was so special about this family lineage and why? Define the exchange God made of Naomi's dream for God's dream.
