Nehemiah 4:7-23

Discussion Questions

1. Why do we think we can experience victory in our lives when we're standing on the sidelines, not really even in the battle? Discuss.
2. Nehemiah played defense to win. How did he respond to escalating threats? When your enemy threatens to stop your wall-building advance, what defensive steps do you take to defeat him and win?
3. How important to winning in our wall-building is "taking thoughts captive" in 2 Corinthians 10:5? What lies have you found you must submit to Christ? What truths from God's word have you declared true for you?
4. Nehemiah played offense to win also. In vs. 14-15, what offensive "plays" did he run? What offensive plays in battling to build and rebuild broken down walls in people's lives have you played? Share one.
5. The deployment of every warrior wall-builder was thoughtful, strategic and divinely inspired. How has the Holy Spirit led you to offer yourself to be deployed according to your gifts, talents, and skills?
