

Series: Arise
We Advance "in the midst of"
Nehemiah 5:1-13

Discussion Questions

1. There's plenty of external crisis in the world today. Add to that internal crisis...and it's extremely difficult to advance any wall building. Share an internal issue that has hindered your part in wall-building advance.
2. Describe as many of the external/internal crisis Nehemiah was dealing with as possible. What would you say were root causes of them?
3. Nehemiah took ownership of his part in the crisis that made the wall-building come to a halt. In vs. 6-11, describe the ways in which he did so and why his leadership of himself was an example for others?
4. Nehemiah also insisted that the rich and powerful take ownership of their part of the crisis. What did he demand they do and why? Discuss.
5. How important was it that they actually did what they said to the work of advancing the wall-building? What steps is God calling you to in advancing our wall-building at Parkside in the midst of crisis in our day?
